"Rosalie Gallery Exhibition - Making Light of Paint Don Milner"

making light of paint Don Milner

Queensland based artist Don Milner will show his new exhibition making light of paint at the Rosalie Gallery in Goombungee from 27 April until 27 July 2012. The exhibition is a follow up to the artists highly successful retrospective exhibition 'the journey .. back to the future . .' held at the Rosalie Gallery in mid 2010.

This new exhibition showcases a selection of his recent paintings and promises to be a visual feast of delicious new offerings spanning subjects and genres of Portrait, Landscape, Seascape and still Life.

Milner been exploring new ways to see, express and capture the light and how it illuminates, models and shapes his subject. From the dramatic light passing through waves after a storm at sea to the subtle colours found in the shade of simple shaded sand wall, Milner depends on the light in all his works to tell the story and defines what is contained within the paintings.
