- * This is a very basic range of materials and students are welcome to bring their own appropriate materials from home, then as the workshops progresses, students can add to their colours and range of materials if they feel the need.
 - * Students bringing previously owned materials from home will still need this basic range of colours or very similar colours to match this basic range.
 - * Students may also purchase their materials as a group to reduce expense and then share at the workshop. Only one problem with this is that they may find this frustrating if these students live in different home locations and want to practise and develop some of the painting skills at home.

- Students are welcome to bring or purchase other colours, but my intention is to have all students used to mixing colours from this basic colour range and then they can add to their palette of colours if they wish, after the preliminary workshop exercises are completed.

Students are welcome to email Don at: donsart009@bigpond.com to get more information and clarify details on his ‘Painting Workshops’ or to discuss the materials required.
